B READING: THE BEGINNING OF A FAIRY TALE

Nadine loves reading. She is fond of reading books in English, too. Below is the beginning of a story Nadine started reading last night.

Read it and work with your partner:

- Decide what kind of book it is, and
- Find a suitable title.

C A FAIRY TALE: THE STORY UNFOLDS

Once upon a time, there was a handsome young man who was the prince in a kingdom far away. He was looking for a princess to marry.

"She must be a real princess in all her qualities", said the Queen. The King agreed saying, "She must be beautiful, clever and sensitive. Yes, it is very important for her to be a true princess".

The prince rode off on his horse and went around the world to find a princess to marry. He stopped in every castle he came across on his travels. There were many princesses, some of them beautiful and some of them clever. But he wasn't sure whether they were real princesses or not. A real princess is a very special person, and one who is not easy to find.

He came home sad and lonely because he had not found the person he was looking for. "I'll never find a real princess", he thought.

Then one dark night there was a terrible storm. Lightning flashed, thunder boomed and the rain poured down. It was a dreadful night.

Suddenly there was a knock on the castle door. All the servants, scared to death, were hiding because of the storm. The King himself went to see who was knocking on such an awful night.

Somebody was standing outside. It was.....

What do you think?
Was the prince lucky
after all?
Now read on.

Your classmates are planning to act out this story. Work with your partner to find the characters of the story and write adjectives that describe them. Use the spaces below. You could also draw their faces. Use a separate piece of paper if you have more characters.

Names: 1. 2. 3. 4.

WRITING

Decide what happened during that stormy night. Then write 2-3 sentences in the spaces below. Who do you think was at the door? What happened next?

Compare your sentences with other classmates' work.

Study the following sentences to see how we can talk about past events that were going on for some time.

There was a terrible storm. The rain was pouring down. Suddenly they heard a knock on the castle door. Somebody was standing at the door.

While the storm was raging, the girl was walking up to the castle doors.

What were the servants doing? They were hiding.

Was the King hiding? No, he wasn't.

Was it pouring with rain? Yes, it was.

E A FAIRY TALE: THE ENDING

Listen to a cassette/cd of the fairy tale in this lesson, try to arrange the sketches and number them in the order you hear them happen. Then, give the tale a proper title. Do you know this fairy tale? Do you know who the writer is?

1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6.

Now, go back to Activity C and make sure you have all the characters of the story.

F A FAIRY TALE: GETTING READY TO ACT IT OUT

Work in groups of 4 and decide who is going to take the role of the four main characters in the tale. Then, as a group, decide which scene of the ones above you would like to dramatize. You decide what you will say to each other and keep notes.

Character 1:

Character 2:

Character 3:

Character 4:

G A FAIRY TALE: ACT IT OUT

Now, in groups, you are ready to act out the scene you have chosen. You could use a simple puppet figure to represent your character. Draw or decorate your puppet so that it represents your character of the story.

When you're all ready, start role-playing and be ready to perform in front of your classmates.

Use any available material that could serve as background.

Learning strategies

DRAMA:

- ☐ I try out different roles in make-believe play
- ☐ Acting in a play often makes meaning clear

H WRITE A PLAY AND PERFORM A PUPPET SHOW

1. Write the small play in 3 Acts. Work as a group and with your partners you can write the rest of the story. Prepare the dialogues and try them out using your puppets. When you have it all ready you can add it in your portfolio. Later on, when you have prepared a small stage and added some music you can play your puppet show in front of the class. Make a puppet, glue a face and clothes on to the body, according to the character you want to have. From a paper box make a stage. Your teacher could also videotape the performance and let you put it in your Portfolio.

2. SHADOW PUPPET THEATRE – KARAGIOZIS: You could write a small play and put on a show where you could use the characters of the Greek Shadow Puppet Theatre (Karagiozis, Hadziavatis, Aglaia, Barba-Giorgos, etc.) www.karagiozismuseum.gr. Also check the 5th Grade book of “Θεατρική Αγωγή”, pages 99-100. Work in groups of 4-5 and write your own imaginative story. Then create your puppets to play the parts of your heroes. Use music, lights and act out your story behind a translucent screen. Your teacher could help you with all the necessary information.

Shadow puppet from Java.

Lesson 2

WHAT AN EXPERIENCE!

A LEAD-IN: GETTING SCARED ►►

Have you ever had experiences which have made you really scared? Can you describe one of these experiences?

B READING

Read Mark, Kostas and Nadine's chat on the Net. Mark writes about an experience he had when he was walking home.

From the chat it is not very clear to you how things happened. For a better understanding, number the pictures that follow 1-5 in the correct order.

Mark: Hi there! How is everything? Let me tell you about a nasty experience I had yesterday afternoon.

Nadine: What happened?

Mark: Someone scared me to death.

Kostas: What do you mean?

Mark: Someone who seemed to be sleeping inside a car suddenly sat up. She raised her hands as if she wanted to attack me.

Nadine: What made that so scary?

Mark: When I first saw the person, she was so still she seemed dead.

Nadine: Where was the car?

Mark: Parked in the street on the way home.

Kostas: Was it during the day or at night?

Mark: It was in the afternoon.

Kostas: What was the car like? Was it old? Did it look strange?

Mark: No, it was a very nice new convertible.

Nadine: Did you know the person? Was it someone who played a trick on you?

Mark: Yeees, it was my cousin Susan and her sister. Silly girls! She and her sister had come to visit us. Her sister was in the car and Susan was hiding behind some bushes. They played a trick on me to scare me. I didn't think it was very funny!

E LISTENING: THE BROWNS AND THE GUNSHOT

The Brown family were at home last Tuesday evening. Each member of the family was involved in their own activities when suddenly a gunshot was heard in the neighbourhood. The police arrived within minutes and interrogated all the people in the neighbourhood. Here's the conversation among some policemen and the members of the Brown family. FOCUS Study the following examples to see how we can talk about past events that happened or were happening at the same time. Fill in the picture with what was happening.

A BAD DAY

While I was waiting for the bus:
a car crashed into the lamp-post,
a child dropped her ice-cream,

a tall young man slipped
on a banana skin, a fireman saved a cat from the tree.
a young man fell off his bicycle.

F SPEAKING: PART OF A STORY

Look at the following pictures. They give you part of a story. Work in groups and tell the story, giving your own ending to it. Then share your stories with the other groups.

If you find this activity too easy or too difficult, go to Appendix, page 145, Activity A.

G WRITE A SHORT STORY

You have decided to enter a short-story competition organised by an international magazine for young readers.

1. Work with your partners.
2. Use all the ideas you came up with in the Speaking task above to write your short story.
3. Remember to use linking words or phrases, such as First, Then, After that, Finally, As soon as, While, When etc. to make your story more interesting to read or listen to.
4. If you don't like the story in the task above, on a separate piece of paper write your own story (7-10 lines).
5. Use drawings or anything else you can think of to illustrate your story.

Lesson 3

A TRADITIONAL STORY

A SPEAKING: EASTER DAY

What would you say if someone asked you about Easter around the world? How much do you know about customs in Greece as well as in other countries?

Let's see what some students discovered about Easter customs working on a school project.

Κέρκυρα, το σπάσιμο των Μπότιδων

"...On Easter Day, all the people of this Greek village attended the mass and then walked to the countryside. The Easter tables were set and the men were roasting the Easter lamb. They sat down at the tables, offering Papa-Kyriakos, the priest, a special seat. And then the feast began. They were eating happily, enjoying their Easter meal after a 40-day fast. Grown-ups were drinking local wine and joking while children were playing and singing, wishing everybody "Happy Easter".

From "Εξοχική Λαμπρή" by Αλέξανδρος Παπαδιαμάντης

"...At Easter there were programs on the Norwegian TV of another kind: detective series.

Nobody quite knew why, but for some reason Easter is the most popular time for reading crime stories and detective novels in Norway. The TV stations all had at least one detective series on the air at Easter. The series and the books were referred to as "Easter-crime".

Going skiing in the mountains is for many Norwegians what Easter holidays are all about. Getting away from the city, enjoying the snow and the weather and not to mention getting a tan to show off when back at work are popular things to do during the vacation...."

From Olaf Amundsen, Norway

"...In many communities in Mexico, the full Passion Play is enacted from the Last Supper, the Betrayal, the Judgement, the Procession of the 12 Stations of the Cross, the Crucifixion and finally, the Resurrection. The enactments are often nicely staged, costumed and acted, with participants preparing for their roles for nearly the full year leading up to Semana Santa (Holy Week)...."

From Esther Martinez, Mexico City

Now discuss for a few minutes with your partner. Refer to the customs mentioned in the texts above and which you found were different from those in your country. Then talk about any other Easter customs you may know about.

Look at Appendix, pp. 146-148 more information on Easter customs in other countries. Report to the class.

COUNTRY	SIMILARITIES	DIFFERENCES

CROSS CURRICULAR PROJECT

- Now, work in groups of 3-4 pupils and make a story of your own. Imagine that last Easter you visited one of the three countries mentioned above. When you came back you wanted to write this story and send it to another friend who lives in Australia. Can you agree with your partners and write what you saw and did in the country you visited?
- Look at the Appendix, page 148, and try and memorize as many "Happy Easter" phrases as you can in different languages.
